

Visiting Schedule

- Regular Visiting: Saturday, Sunday, & selected legal holidays (New Years Day, 4th of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving & day after, and Christmas Day). Regular visiting is held from 9:00 a.m. through 3:00 p.m. Inmate processing concludes at 2:00 p.m. No more than five people, including children, are allowed to visit an inmate at one time.
- Non-Contact Visits: Non-contact visits are held in booths with a glass window separating the inmate and visitor. No more than three visitors, including children, are permitted to visit simultaneously. These visits are held on Sundays commencing at 10:00 a.m. and concluding at 12:00 noon. Each visit must not exceed one hour in duration.
- Legal Representative/Attorney/Social Services: Legal representatives, attorneys, and social services personnel who require the need to visit an inmate must arrange their appointments via the CCWF Litigation Coordinator.

Visiting Room Procedures

Each visitor and inmate is responsible for his or her own conduct while visiting. Violation of the rules may result in termination, restriction, suspension or denial of visits. Additionally, disciplinary charges may be filed against the inmate. An inmate and her visitor are allowed to embrace and kiss at the beginning and end of the visit. Holding hands on top of the table, in plain view is permitted. No other physical contact is allowed. Excessive contact, such as kissing, massaging, stroking, touching parts of the body, including the face, sitting with legs intertwined or sitting on laps, are not permitted and may be cause for termination. Inmates may not receive any gifts, money, jewelry or documents during a visit. A photo machine is available for visitors and respective inmates. An inmate may keep up to three picture photos. Photos are $2 each (the machine takes one dollar bills only). The exact amount is required as staff cannot make change for visitors.
